About Us

The GW Hatchet is an editorially and financially independent student newspaper serving The George Washington University and Foggy Bottom communities. First published October 5, 1904, it is the second-oldest continuously published newspaper in the District, after The Washington Post.

In 1993, The GW Hatchet was incorporated as an independent 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, and the paper has been editorially and financially independent of the University since then. The GW Hatchet publishes 2,000 copies once each week during the academic year on Mondays and a weekly online edition on Thursdays. News stories are also published on The Hatchet’s award-winning website daily.
